

Advertising Placement Legislation: Ireland

A. Advertising Airtime	Private Radio	Public Radio
Does your national legislation refer to a maximum amount of advertising time?	Yes	Yes
Does your national legislation say anything about a maximum daily amount of advertising time?  If yes, please specify what the daily amount of advertising is. If the amount is expressed in percentage, please indicate in the comment box the relevant reference for the calculation of the advertising airtime (i.e. either a 24 hour period or the real transmission time of the channel per day)	Yes  108 min	Yes  216 min
Does your national legislation refer to a maximum hourly amount of advertising time?  If yes, please detail the maximum hourly amount of advertising and answer the question: Does the percentage of maximum hourly amount of advertising need to be calculated within a given hourly clock hour, or at any time within a 60 minute period (sliding hour)?	Yes  5 min  Clock hour	Yes  10 min  Clock hour
B. Programme Interruptions	Private Radio	Public Radio
Can you, according to your national legislation, interrupt programmes with advertising breaks?	Yes	Yes
Is there any distinction to be made depending on the category of programme, e.g. news and current affairs programmes, religious programmes, children programmes, or any other type of programme (please specify)?	Yes	Yes
Comment:            Public Radios: no advertising break within religious programmes. Private Radios: are also not allowed to advertise during religious programmes.            A Children's Commercial Communications Code was introduced in 2009. This code is applicable to any programming that has an audience profile of more that 50% under the age of 18.
C. Minimum length of a programme for an interruption	Private Radio	Public Radio
As a general rule, must the programme be of minimum length in order to be interrupted by an	No	No advertising break?

Is there any distinction to be made in regard to a minimum length requirements depending on the category of programme e.g. news and current affairs programmes, religious programmes, children programmes, or any other type of programme (please specify)?	No	No
Must there be a minimum interval between two advertising breaks? If yes, please indicate the minimum length.	No	No
D. Number and length of breaks	Private Radio	Public Radio
Does your national legislation refer to a maximum number of commercials per break?	No	No
Does your national legislation refer to a maximum length for advertising breaks?	No	No
Does your national legislation refer to a minimum length for advertising breaks?	No	No
Does your national legislation allow advertising breaks with one commercial only ?	Yes	Yes
Does your national law refer to the gross duration (i.e. as scheduled in the Radio programme guide – the gross duration includes the time dedicated to advertising breaks) or the net duration ?	Not app.	Not app.
Comment: This is not specified.		